It's the school again! You're probably feeling excited and maybe a little sad that you see him end. Some children feel nervous or a little frightened on the first day of class because of all new things: new teachers, new friends and maybe even a new school. Fortunately, these "new" concerns are around for a while. Let's find out more about going back to school. The first day most teachers expels the school year, presenting and talking about all the things that you will be doing that year. Some teachers give students the chance to tell something about the rest of the class. When teachers make the conversation on the first day, they often go through classroom rules so that you know what is allowed and what is not. Pay a lot of attention so you can know if you need to raise your hand to ask a question and which are the rules about visiting the bathroom. You can already know many children in your classes on the first day. But it's a great day to make a new friend, so try to say oliva for children you know and new that you do not. Make the first move and you will be happy that you did and also your new friend! Moving to Middle Teaching? Sixth SA © Rie usually signals a change for teaching or judgment, where you will find summit and perhaps a classroom. This is just what it seems - a classroom you go for every morning, type like your home at school. In the teaching, you can move from the classroom to the classroom for each subject. Your teachers know that this is a great change in primary school and help you adjust. Most teachers let you choose your own seat on the first day, but on the second or third morning, they will have a plane of seating. At the beginning, it is a good idea to write where your seat is in your notebook so that you do not forget. Page 1 Feeling good on the first day, seeing friends that you did not see in a while can make the first day a good one. You can also make the day feel special wearing a clothing that you like. Maybe you have a great fan shirt, or your new sneakers put a spring in your step. If you wear a uniform, you can use a favorite clock, a new hair band or a jewelry piece to show your personal style. You can make you feel good to be prepared and have all the supplies you need. Some schools distribute offer lists before the beginning of the year, so you can be stored in patches, folders and anything else you need. Once you have covered the basic, you can thread some extra dollars in your backpack for an emergency (how to forget your lunch money). Or maybe you'd like to bring a book or magazine to read while you're at Bus. Everything you put in your backpack, make sure you pack the night before. This prevents the morning out of the morning when you can not find your homework or lunch. Speaking of lunch, this is something else that can help you feel good at school - if you are the first day or the 100th day. Help your parents pack the night before, if you do not like what's on the menu in the cafeteria. Try to include a variety of food in packed lunch, especially fruits and vegetables. Be guided by the first day of school is your first chance to find your way in a new school, or learn the ways to new classes in your old school. It's too much to learn in one day, so do not be surprised if you need a reminder or two. Can help write a few notes for yourself, then you remember the important things, as your combination of the closet and lunch begins to 11:43, not 12 : 10. Before you know, your fingers fly while you open your closet and you will not have to check your notes to know what time the lunch begins! Page 2 A Bad Getting? And if you hate the Until the end of the first day? Teachers recommend giving things some time to separate - Once you know the premium and adjust to the new routine, you will probably feel better. If these feelings do not disappear, talk to your mother, father, teacher or school counselor. Here are some final tips for a school year: sleep enough. Eat a healthy café. Try your best. Use good work habits, such as writing your tasks and transforming your homework from home in time. Take your time with school work. If you do not understand anything, ask the teacher. Keep a sense of humor. A teacher we know shows his new students a photo of himself forming in the teaching - a smiling monkey in a black graduation and dressed. This usually makes children laugh, and it's a good way to remind them that school is fun!
