He said, "I am sure the prime minister will be as satisfied as I am this week that the Scottish Earth land gave the green light to establish a spatial launching installation in Sutherland." This is © something that is great for the UK and is time to bury political differences from the party. "In the name of the Community's delighted community in Method, I extend a heated invitation to the Prime Minister for Getting to the first release - he will receive a delicious mountain bitch, including some homemade scones.Boris Johnson replied that he hoped to take the invitation and added that Jamie Stone would be a suitable load to send a spatial mission. He said "I can thank you for the honorable Lord for your kind invitation, I look forward to taking it." What we need, it's a suitable useful load to send to the space and I think the opposite gentleman would do very well. "After the exchange, Jamie Stone MP said," I'm glad that Prime Minister C Share my enthusiasm by Sutherland Spaceport ". As for sending me to the stratosphere in the first rocket available.
